

Choose a Berkeley City College Learning Community to Help Ensure Your College Success!

Berkeley City College's Learning Community Cohort programs—where you enroll in two or more related classes together—offer easy scheduling and support that helps you succeed in college.

- FYE (First Year Experience)

If you are a high school graduate who wants to attend BCC full-time to obtain an associate degree in two years then transfer to a four-year college, First Year Experience (FYE) is for you. This innovative cohort program provides intensive support and early planning to help you succeed in college. You may apply to this program if you qualify for English 1A.

- PERSIST (Personal Initiative and Social Transformation)

If you want to attend BCC full-time to earn your associate degree and want to transfer to a four-year university or train for a variety of Career and Technical Education (CTE) jobs, this PERSIST cohort is for you. PERSIST was designed to help you transfer to California universities and private colleges. It also allows you to quickly enter Career and Technical Education (CTE) pathways in Education, Multimedia Arts, and Public & Human Services.

- PERSIST to College

(Personal Initiative and Social Transformation for High School Students)

If you are a high school student who wants to start college before graduating from high school, PERSIST to College is for you. This cohort program provides you with a focused transition to college. You may be able to finish one year of college credit while you are still attending high school.

- Umoja

The purpose of the Umoja Learning Community is to create a welcoming environment for African-American students that encourages inclusiveness, instills confidence and creates successful students. The overarching goal of BCC's Umoja Learning Community is to help you achieve your academic goals by providing you with comprehensive support services. These include tutoring, dedicated counselors, and cultural activities.
