EASY STEPS TO ENROLL AT BCC

1 Apply for Admission.
Apply online or at the Admissions Office on the 1st Floor.
Don’t forget to complete and submit your FAFSA through fafsa.ed.gov.

2 Complete Assessment and Online Orientation.
Learn about BCC’s programs and policies through the online orientation and check out other options, including taking the placement test, to place in math and English courses.

3 See a Counselor.
This is your opportunity to get help planning your educational program and goals.

4 Register for your Classes.
Register online through PASSPORT, or enroll in person at the Admissions Office.
Be sure to use your new Peralta student email account.

5 Pay your Fees.
Through PASSPORT or the Cashier’s Office on the 1st Floor.

6 Get your Photo ID.
This will identify you as an official BCC student!

7 Buy your Books.
Visit BCC’s bookstore on the 5th Floor.

CONNECT

In the heart of the culturally vibrant city of Berkeley, you have the chance to make life-changing connections every single day, both in and outside the walls of the college. Connect with teachers in the classroom or tutors in the Learning Resource Center. Link up with future leaders in student government or the welcome team of student ambassadors. Join peers in student clubs and other exciting activities.

Beyond the classroom, the college has many bridges into the community:

- BCC Student can take classes at UC Berkeley
- High school students in Albany, Berkeley, Emeryville and Oakland can get credit for BCC courses
- Bay Area organizations offer internships in many careers from healthcare to major film studios to biotech firms

EXCEL

Berkeley City College has graduated thousands of students, many of whom have stayed in the Bay Area to continue their education or thrive in their careers and give back to the community. Highlighted below are three of BCC’s success stories, former students who have each come from different backgrounds but found the education and skills they needed to shine brightly in the world and make BCC proud.

TENZIN SELDON

BCC: Associate Arts, 2013

Occupation: Page-Burma Production, San Francisco Chronicle, Guardian, RedEye,公益; Documentary Filmaker

Professional Affiliations: 2013 Northern California Emmy® Award for “A Brush with the Tenderloin”

“I can proudly say that I am today an Oxford and Stanford graduate only because of Berkeley City College. “Took in a month’s work to start my work at the United Nations… and now I take every course that I have learned from Berkeley City College, every experience that I have garnered here, and I will make sure that it is represented in the United Nations.”

PAIGE BIERMA

BCC: Multimedia Arts, 2010

Occupation: Paige Bierma Productions, San Francisco Chronicle, Guardian, RedEye,公益; Documentary Filmaker

“After traveling the world as a newspaper reporter writing about social and political issues, I turned to community college to help me find a voice to tell.”

“BCC helped me discover a second career in filmmaking and video production, and I was elated to add image and sound to my storytelling.”

KOSTROPE GREEN

BCC: Industrial Design, 2013

Occupation: Interior Design, Oakland Technical High School, Assistant Program Director

“Becoming a part of a community that inspired me to reach my goals beyond my wildest expectations, and I found friendships that will last a lifetime.”

“Things made sense; I felt I was on track at an early age. I was going somewhere, and I knew there was an opportunity to get the education I always wanted. Years upon years of riding the waves were proving wrong as facility and staff gave me incredible support, and fellow students were kind and accepting and taught me to persevere.”
