Description

Berkeley City College's History-AA-T Program must recruit, train or retain individuals who wish to earn an Associate Degree for Transfer. Students and faculty must play an active role in marketing and recruitment processes. A seamless student support system connected to the program also must be developed.

Rationale

Faculty, staff and students in Berkeley City College's History AA-T Program will engage in activities which meet the marketing plan objectives listed above. In doing so, History faculty and staff will build a foundation for future marketing and recruitment efforts. Meeting these objectives will help the program increase enrollment and broaden public awareness of educational and job options for History majors.

Target Audience

The History AA-T Program's target audiences include high school students; returning students; employees in business, government, and nonprofit agencies who wish to earn a college degree, who wish to complete lower division transfer requirements or who wish to transfer to four-year universities immediately after graduation.
