

Enhancing CTE Pathways through Industry Partnerships

What is industry telling us? Possessing critical skills and mindsets among our next generation of students to maintain global competitiveness is a top concern. Join us to discover proven techniques and methods to advance student success and local workforce readiness by aligning and integrating educational programs with robust and lasting industry partnerships. Learn how to structure internships, career days, skills assessments, mentoring and faculty externships while adding value for employers.

to register: CLICK HERE

Finding Solutions Together

Sponsored by

Napa County Office of Education
California Career Pathways Trust Technical Assistance Project
College & Career Readiness Department
In partnership with California Department of Education

www.napaccr.org
707.253.5981

Target Audience

Teachers and Administrators

When

October 11, 2016

Time

Two Sessions

8:30 – 12:00

or

1:00 – 4:30

Where

Hilton Oakland Airport
1 Hegenberger Road
Oakland, California

Presenter:

Brandon Shamim, an entrepreneur, college instructor, and director of a regional consortium promoting workplace readiness for global trade and logistics, will serve as our workshop facilitator.