EXCEL

Berkeley City College has graduated thousands of students, many of whom have stayed in the Bay Area to continue their education or thrive in their careers and give back to the community. Highlighted below are three of BCC’s success stories, former students who have each come from different backgrounds but found the education and skills they needed to shine brightly in the world and make BCC proud!

PAIGE BIERMA

BCC: Multimedia Arts, 2010
Occupation: Paige Bierma Productions, San Francisco, CA; Video Producer, Journalist, documentary filmmaker
Professional Achievements: 2013 Northern California Emmy™ Award winner for “A Brush With the Tenderloin”
(View at vimeo.com/paigebierma/tlbrush)

“After traveling the world as a newspaper reporter writing about social and political issues, I turned to community college to help me find a new wave to ride.

“BCC helped me discover a second career in filmmaking and video production, and I was elated to add image and sound to my storytelling.

“What I love most about BCC’s multimedia department are the incredibly supportive and effective instructors who offer real-life skills and knowledge you will never learn from a book.

“Thanks to BCC for launching me towards a fulfilling and award-winning career!”

TENZIN SELDON

BCC: Transfer Requirements, 2009; summa cum laude, Associated Students of Berkeley City College Senator, Student Ambassador
Stanford University: Bachelor of Arts in Comparative Studies, 2012
University of Oxford: Master of Philosophy in Comparative Social Policy, 2014
Occupation: Co-founder, CEO at Kinstep
Professional Achievements: United Nations ESCAP Consultant, United Nations Environment Programme Fellow, Stanford Daily Newspaper Board of Directors, Center for Compassion and Altruism Research and Education Fellow, Rhodes Scholar

“I can proudly say that I am today an Oxford and Stanford graduate only because of Berkeley City College.

“And in a month I will be starting my work at the United Nations . . . and I will take every lesson that I have learned from Berkeley City College; every experience that I have garnered here, and I will make sure that is represented at the United Nations.”

KRISTOPHE GREEN

BCC: AA for Transfer, Psychology, 2013; Chancellor’s Trophy Award, Lead Student Ambassador, Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society, Associated Students of Berkeley City College Senator, Salutatorian
University of California, Berkeley: Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, 2016; Valedictorian
Occupation: Performance Analyst, San Francisco International Airport, Learning and Development Division

“When I first approached BCC, I was filled with doubt. Because of family struggles, I had to quit school at an early age, and now that I was being given the opportunity to get the education I always wanted, I was terrified of failing. But my worst fears were proved wrong as faculty and staff gave me incredible support, and fellow students were kind and accepting and taught me to persevere.

“I became part of a community that inspired me to reach my goals beyond my wildest expectations, and I found friendships that will last a lifetime.”
