

SPONSORED BY STUDENTS FOR SOCIAL CHANGE
AT BCC

SO YOU WANT TO BE AN ACTIVIST?

A MOVIE SERIES FOR PEOPLE WHO WANT TO CHANGE THE WORLD

WEDNESDAYS
6PM ON ZOOM

JOIN US TO WATCH AND DISCUSS!

Link to sign up on email list:

[https://forms.gle/GdFV
rY6LmEGfLNLG7](https://forms.gle/GdFVrY6LmEGfLNLG7)

Zoom Link:

<https://tinyurl.com/y6oe48jd>

Today many of us feel an urgent need to fight for a better world. But from the pandemic to climate change to homelessness and poverty, the problems we face can seem overwhelming. It is often difficult to figure out how to begin. But history is filled with examples of ordinary people organizing to change society. We will learn from that history as we watch and discuss films that can teach us something about how we can begin struggle for a better world.

Movies and dates:

- February 3rd: The Pandemic and Our Future
We will watch a few video clips about our current crisis and what the future we make may hold.
- February 10th: Whose Streets
From the activists who organized in the Ferguson uprising that began in 2014, a look at the early Black Lives Matter movement.
- February 17th: Disobedience
This video surveys the environmental crisis and the people who have organized around the world in response.
- February 24th: Rebels with a Cause
In the 1960s a massive social movement took place inspiring many college students into action - this movie tells their stories.
- March 3rd: Sir, No Sir!
A movie about the courageous resistance to the Viet Nam war by those that were sent to fight in it.
- March 10th: Requiem for the American Dream
Noam Chomsky discusses wealth and power in modern America, exposing important truths about history and society.