

Need help paying your utilities? The CA COVID-19 Rent Relief program may be able to help.

Utility payment assistance is available from the State of California for income eligible renters who have been impacted by COVID-19 and need help paying past due or future utility bills.

How does it work?

Unpaid utilities dating back to April 1, 2020 will be compensated at 100% of cost, limited to a total of 12 months, and paid directly to the utility provider. Eligible renters may also receive assistance with future payments.

Who can apply?

Income eligible renters who have experienced a loss of income due to COVID-19 and need help with unpaid or future utility payments.

Assistance from the CA COVID-19 Rent Relief program does not count as earned income and will not affect eligibility for any other state benefit assistance programs.

All applicant information is kept private and will not be shared.

Income eligible applicants may qualify regardless of immigration status and will not be required to show proof of citizenship.
