

College Students & Recent Graduates Wanted for Customer Service & Marketing Position

Merch Monster is looking for current college students and recent graduates to join our customer service and marketing department. This is a part-time entry-level position with room for growth into a full-time sales, marketing or project management role.

The Company

Merch Monster is one of the leading screen printing companies in the SF Bay Area. In the past 3 years we've scaled from $0 to $1MM in sales! Our clients include UC Berkeley, Visa, The North Face, Warner Music, Sony Music, Atlantic Records, and many more.

- Over 60+ positive reviews on Yelp!

The Position

In this hybrid customer service and marketing role, you will get training and hands-on experience working on many different facets of the company including:

- Providing the best possible experience to clients in-person and over the phone
- Creating and publishing marketing content via email, web and social media
- Researching information to assist with marketing and sales campaigns
- Pays $14/hr to start
- Hours: 1-5pm (slightly flexible start time)

The Location

Merch Monster is located in Oakland on the beautiful Embarcadero waterfront, close to downtown and Jack London Square.

- Beautiful brick warehouse built in 1883, originally a cotton mill
- Lots of parking
- Not easily accessible by public transportation. 35 minutes walk from Fruitvale BART. Probably need a car or bike.

Why Apply?

- Gain valuable experience working in a professional office environment
- Ability to directly impact the success of the company and our clients
- Part-time schedule available for college students who have morning classes
- Centrally located in the East Bay close to the freeway

How To Apply

Send your resume and cover letter to apply@merchmonster.net. No phone calls please.
