

ASL Playgroup Tutor

Teach ASL to hearing kids through play!

Do you love kids?

Do you love American Sign Language?

We are a small group of parents who are interested in having our children learn American Sign Language. This would be once a week on Saturday mornings for an hour paying $100. A small group of 4-6 children, ages 2-5 in the backyard of one of the parents house in Berkeley.

We are looking for someone with experience with young children and ASL, who would be willing to teach simple ASL signs through games (i.e. 'I Spy'), songs and other simple and accessible play.

Interested? Send an e-mail with a description of your background, a brief resume and three references to
