Public Allies Silicon Valley San Francisco is looking for the next generation of non-profit and social change leaders!

Do you want to change your community? Do you want to gain valuable leadership skills while earning money for school? APPLY and become an Ally!

As an Ally, you'll participate in a 10-month fellowship program featuring a 32 hour per week community apprenticeship, weekly professional development, monthly service days and group retreats - all to enhance your ability to make positive change. You'll strengthen your networking, collaboration, communication, and project management skills through participation in a Team Service Project. You'll also gain valuable on-the-job experience through your local non-profit apprenticeship where you can work to make a difference in the lives of students, families, refugees, veterans and others affected by issues.

Benefits for our members include a $15,240 living stipend over 10 months, free basic health insurance, childcare assistance (if applicable), student loan forbearance and a $5,900 AmeriCorps Education Award for each of our program graduates. In addition, individuals completing the program gain access to our National Alumni Network to further accelerate your career post-Service.

Public Allies Silicon Valley San Francisco is looking for all kinds of candidates, but you're a particularly great fit for this program if you...

- are interested in or passionate about social issues, such as: mental health, education, public health, urban planning, LGBTQ resources, child development, and public service
- are unemployed or have been underemployed for 6+ months
- do not yet possess a college degree and are interested in continuing to professionally develop your skills in the social services sector
- do have a college degree, and are interested in continuing to professionally develop your skills in the social services sector
- are passionate about diversity and inclusion, new ideas, and being challenged to become a better leader
- will be at least 17 years old and are available to start a full-time, ten-month program beginning in September, 2018
- are a US Citizen or have permanent residency in the U.S.
