

County of Santa Clara's Government Fellowship Program Call for Applications

November 30, 2020 – January 8, 2021

The County of Santa Clara is inviting students currently attending an institution that offers an academic degree or certification after high school to participate in a summer fellowship program for up to 10 weeks. Interested students can submit applications November 30, 2020 – January 8, 2021.

Each year, the Government Fellowship Program sponsors students and places them in various departments, agencies, and/or offices developing/implementing a Board Priority, Initiative, and/or Policy or maintain a High Demand Job Classification across the County.

As a Government Fellow, you will:

- Be placed in a County agency or department for the Summer 2021 cohort;
- Be competitively selected and paid a stipend of up to $8,000;
- Get the opportunity to network with professionals in your desired career field; and
- Complete a research-based project and report related to your interests and skill sets.

We invite you to apply!
